9) The Director of Archaeology shall not be treated as an officer in Govt. service and shall not be entitled to any allowance from which his salary is drawn. According to this article, the T.A. bill has to be met out of the funds of the University. But the Govt. of Kerala, the University is of the opinion that as the journey has not been undertaken in connection with the University business the claim has to be processed on Govt. funds.

10) In the above circumstances, this may be referred to the Govt. of Kerala for clarification as to whether the T.A. bill of the professor has to be met out of the budget of the Dept. of Archaeology or the Kerala University

OFFICE OF The Director of Archaeology Mysore.

Date 19th November 1953.

To
The Secretary to the Government of Mysore,
Education Department, Public Offices,
BANGALORE.I.

T.A.Bill of Dr. K.A.Nilakanta Sastri, Professor of Indology, University of Mysore.

With reference to correspondence resting with your letter No.E.12084 dated 6-11-53 on the above subject, I write to state that Prof.K.A.Nilakanta Sastri, Professor of Indology University of Mysore, attended the meeting held in the Chambers of the Minister for Law and Education at 10 A.M. on 11-7-1953 at Bangalore to consider the future of the Department of Archaeology in Mysore. Ordinarily as per Article 81(e) of the Mysore Financial Code, the T.A. of an Officer in Government service has to be met from the same head from which his salary is paid. It is seen from the Audit Memo No.4555 dated 4-8-1953 in the file that the Financial Branch of the University are of the opinion that as the journey has not been performed in connection with the University business

b

the claim may be preferred from Government funds. In the circumstances kind orders of Government may kindly be passed regarding the budget head from which the T.A. of Professor K.A.Nilakanta Sastri has to be met.

Yours faithfully,

(K.Narayana Iyengar)
